

Public Records Request concerning Iris Roley submitted on August 6, 2025

On February 15, 2022, WLWT reported, "Cincinnati hires consultant to help with Collaborative Agreement engagement efforts." The report identifies Iris Roley as the consultant hired by the city.

This request is for a copy of the city's documents concerning Iris Roley's consulting work for the city for the period February 2022 to present. This would include the contracting documents concerning Ms. Roley's consulting work for the city and the invoices and other documents concerning claims for payment submitted by Ms. Roley for her consulting work and documents concerning payments to Ms. Roley by the city.

In addition, the WLWT reports that "According to the city, Roley's role will 'bring the community voice directly to the City Manager,' as well as perform five main functions:"

The WLWT report, which I have attached, describes those functions as follows:

- 1. Provide consultation and trainer services for the general operation of the city of Cincinnati's MAG. This will include delivering a summary report to the city manager regarding the status of the 2017 Collaborative Refresh recommendations that have been accomplished and those that are outstanding, as well as a plan to work collaboratively with the police chief and city manager to move forward.*
- 2. Engage stakeholders through a series of community listening sessions on key topics including, but not limited to, the impact of violence in the community, youth engagement on issues of policing and public safety, community-police relations, and community problem-solving training.*
- 3. Provide a review of the role of the Human Relations Division of the City Manager's Office.*
- 4. Provide advice regarding and facilitate community engagement with respect to the hiring of a new police chief as requested by the city.*
- 5. Provide a series of dedicated onboarding sessions for city of Cincinnati's newly hired Collaborative Agreement Sustainability Manager.*

This request includes documents submitted by Ms. Roley concerning her consulting work described in items 1 through 5 listed above and documents concerning any other consulting work by Ms. Roley and work products produced by Ms. Roley for the period February 15, 2022, to present.

Finally, this request also includes all email communications between Ms. Roley and Mayor Pureval; Ms. Roley and City Manager Long; and Ms. Roley and Chief of Police Theetge for the period January 4, 2022, to present.
